

It is always a pleasure to share with you our creations here at Lilies and Lace. If you don't always have time to drop by the shop, you can have a browse on our website. The Photo Gallery is every changing and we hope will help inspire your next creation.

September and we welcomed Rachel into the family. My mind is reeling. So to encourage you to think ahead as well, I have scheduled several new classes during the next three months. They are fantastic ways to get things done!

I am really excited about the "Pretty Collar" class. The collar is detachable and so can be used with several garments not to mention for several years. You will choose laces, eyelet and/or Swiss embroideries to work with. This collar is not only wonderful for girls, but boys as well. And speaking of boys, there is even a class where we will focus solely on them - An Easter Shirt. You will have the opportunity and time to design and sew a precious shirt that may be worn with either a John John or a pair of shorts. As much as I love sewing for boys, I realize I have never offered many classes. Did I mention I love a new year?

One of our French Sewing classes will entail making a Basic Yoke Dress. Please don't let the name fool you. A yoke dress can be far from basic when using French sewn techniques. It can be anything from fancy to a very simple but elegant dress and is and always will be the classic heirloom.

I wish everyone a very Happy and Prosperous New Year. May it be filled with wonderful memories and many cherished ideas!
